President's Message

How appropriate, in the midst of the Jewish High Holidays, peace is finally within Israel's grasp. Hopefully, the remaining steps of the peace proposal will materialize as smoothly.

I wonder, however, if the attitude towards the Jewish population worldwide will soften as a result of this peace accord.

Looking to the future of Mayim Shalom, at our board meeting on November 12, voting for this year's board members will take place. Once the new board is in place, its members will vote in the executive committee and work will begin on establishing dates for upcoming events and discussions with our potentially new Rabbi.

Future new letters will be furnished as progress moves forward.

I would like to close by wishing everyone blessed holidays and continued peace for all Jews worldwide.

Jim DeNatale

Chanukah

Stacy will once again lead us in dancing at this year's Chanukah party.

Our meal will be catered by Jeri Sher.

Children are welcome. Naimb (Neeve) will lead the dreidel game and give out Chanukah gelt.

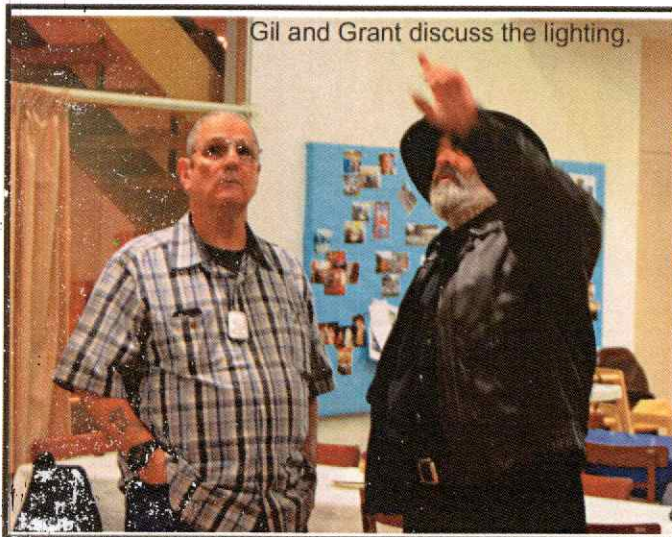

See details on page 1.

Joanne led the service.

Gil and Grant discuss the lighting.

Martin and Carl checked out the beverages.

Grant and RaeLea recently vacationed in Spain with their daughter and her family.
